Welcome to the May Monthly Catalogue, the most comprehensive buyer's guide to new and forthcoming titles in natural history, conservation and the environment.

Carl Linnaeus (1707-1778)

Born on May 23, 1707, Carl Linnaeus is regarded as the Father of Taxonomy. His system for naming, ranking, and classifying organisms is still used today and his ideas have influenced generations of botanists and ecologists. On the occasion of the tercentenary of his birth, we have compiled a selection of great titles on botany, the naming of plants and Linnaeus himself.

New Monograph Series in Botany and Zoology

Several new series have recently been announced, with the first volumes already published or in preparation:

- Flora of Hong Kong
- Coleoptera of Europe
- The Lepidoptera of Israel
- Handbook of the Mammals of the World

NHBS accepts Standing Orders for all series, with the option of either a "firm" Standing Order (i.e. we will send you a copy of the book upon publication), or a "notify" Standing Order (i.e. you will be notified when a new volume in a series has been announced by the publisher). For more information about standing orders, please contact customer.services@nhbs.com or give us a call.
