

March 2026 Monthly Catalogue

Welcome to the March 2026 edition of the NHBS Monthly Catalogue, which lists all new titles added to our website in the last month.

We open this month with some notable titles on different vertebrate groups. Pelagic Publishing has announced The Social Lives of Bats: From Roosting Rituals to Dinner Dates for September. Birdwatchers can look out for Birds of Finland, a new Helm Wildlife Guide due in August from Bloomsbury, and Ghosts of the Night: The Extraordinary Lives of British Owls, due in May from HarperCollins. For herpetologists, we have two forthcoming books about snakes: Pelagic Publishing will release Field Guide to the Snakes of Malawi in July, while Comstock Publishing will release Boas of the World in August.

On the subject of invertebrates, we have British Orthoptera and Allied Insects, a new RES Handbook due in July from the Royal Entomological Society; Cone Shells from Brazil, which was just released by ConchBooks; and Microplankton in Norwegian Marine Waters, recently published by Ad Hoc Forlag.

Three noteworthy botany titles this month are Start to Identify Mosses, a new pocket guide from Faith Anstey, due in March; the recently published Flora of Brecknockshire; and Japanese Knotweed: Invasion Biology, History, Identification, Ecology & Management, due in August from Pelagic Publishing.

Finally, three books to look forward to on the subject of environmental issues and wildlife conservation are the paperback reissue of How to Save the Amazon: A Journalist's Deadly Quest for Answers, due in April from Bonnier Books; Costa Rica's Rainforests: The Natural History of the Plants and Animals of La Selva, due in August from Princeton University Press; and Dangerous Animals & Outdoor Hazards in Africa: Assessing Risk, Managing Human-Wildlife Conflict and Responding to Life-Threatening Situations in Remote Locations, due in August from Pelagic Publishing.

As always, if you are looking for a particular title that we do not yet have in our range, or you would like to suggest a title for NHBS to stock, please do get in touch.
